Property Law

Claire is Special Counsel in the Property team at Sladen Legal.

Claire has a wealth of experience in commercial and residential property gained both locally and overseas.

From advising on large-scale property development agreements across greater Melbourne to assisting inner city office tenants, Claire enjoys assisting landlords, tenants and property developers across a range of property projects.

In the large format retail space Claire has acted for both landlords and tenants, with a particular focus on supermarket retailing.

Claire's areas of practice include:

- Sales and acquisitions of development sites and commercial and residential properties
- Property development and subdivisions
- Commercial and retail leasing
- Property portfolio management
- Property due diligence
